How to Develop a Sustained 5S + 1 System?

by: JOE NEILS, Lean Six Sigma Black Belt, Mercury Marine

CONTENT SUMMARY

We often fear relentless change, but we must adopt it; as it is our duty in the role as a lean leader. Most often the real reasons for institutionalizing 5s+1 become overshadowed when the disbursement of labor comes to a cross road of production or “cleaning up.” Inevitably the program becomes scorned by those who wanted to believe in it, and becomes a burden to those who now have to support a crumbling, half-in-place process.

NOTE: There IS a pre-meeting ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSION at Alioto's this month.

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

Joseph R. Neils
LSS Black Belt, Mercury Marine
Wisconsin state certified firefighter - Volunteer
Fire / rescue

Joe is currently a Lean Six Sigma Black Belt at Mercury Marine. In his role as a black belt and leading the initiative 1st year of a 5s+1 platform, he has trained and ran 5s+1 projects with over 350 employees including mentoring other black belts in China, Belgium and throughout the United States. Joe was nominated for Mercury's 2014 SAFE award and his project work in launching the 5s+1 platform was recognized as a global lean six sigma impact award finalist.

Joe has been a Lean leader since 2004 and has held titles as a Lean Six Sigma Black Belt, Project, Process, and Quality Engineer at HUI, MTM, and Mercury Marine.

Joe is an ASQ CQA, Caterpillar Certified Black Belt, and Brunswick Lean Six Sigma Black Belt. He has a Bachelor's degree in Management with a technical emphasis in Quality from UW-Stout.

Call for Volunteers

Please note that the ASQ Milwaukee Section leadership team needs four volunteers to chair the following committees for the 2017 calendar year:

- Chair Elect
- Assistant Treasurer
- Plant Tours
- Technical Seminars

Please thoughtfully consider joining the team! If you have questions, please contact any team member (see page 6) and Patricia Morrill to volunteer. Thank you!

ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSION TOPIC

“The 8 Wastes”

We are fortunate to have Dave Kijek, Supplier Integration Manager from Mercury Marine Fond du Lac WI, to define the 8 Wastes. Dave is an ASQ Certified: Quality Engineer, Manager of Quality and Organizational Excellence, Quality Auditor, and Six Sigma Black Belt. In 2015, Dave received his Brunswick/ Mercury Certification as a Lean Six Sigma Black Belt.

Dave has a BS in Electrical Engineering from University of Wisconsin-Madison.

Dave will outline – The 8 Wastes

- Value added, Non-Value added & Business Non-Value Added
- Three Rules of Waste
- Video – 122 Steps At Mercury
- Group exercise on waste identification

The presentation will begin at 5:30; we will distribute RU slips at the tables at 5:45. If you arrive after 5:45 please participate but understand that you will not receive RUs for the event.

We will finish at 6:15 leaving ample time to register for the meeting.

Certification Exam Changes

Excerpt from an important message from Michael Byrnes, Director of Certification Products, ASQ, The Global Voice of Quality:

Based on extensive market analysis and feedback from our loyal members, ASQ is moving the administration of all certification exams from paper and pencil to computer based test, or CBT, delivery. The change will occur for all exams scheduled to take place from Sept. 28, 2016, onwards. (There may be some exceptions due to site location availability for International site locations.) We are delighted to partner with Prometric, one of the world's leading testing and assessment providers to fulfill a desire of ASQ members to offer a variety of additional benefits including:

- Additional annual exam administrations: from two to six
- Additional days available for testing: from four per year to 102
- Convenience of retesting: reduced from 6 months to 2 months
- More test locations: from 350 to 8,000
- Faster test results: from 10 days to 0-4 days (except for CSSMBB and CMQ/OE, which require paper scoring).

All English exam products will transition to CBT with the October and December 2016 administrations. Translated exam products will be available beginning with the March 2017 exams.

Here is a link to a video on what to expect on test day: <https://vimeo.com/74953443>

CALL for NEWSLETTER and WEBSITE ADVERTISERS!

We are looking for additional newsletter and website advertisers! Advertising with the Milwaukee section promotes your products and services to its members and anyone who visits its website. In addition to having extremely competitive advertising rates, each company who advertises with ASQ Milwaukee may send one employee, free of charge, to one day of training at its annual spring training event!

As an additional incentive, we are offering a free dinner to anyone who connects us with a company that becomes a paid advertiser!
