ASQ Transformation- Why and How

by: WILLIAM J. TROY, CEO, ASQ

ASQ has been the world's premier quality association for 70 years. 70,000 ASQ members worldwide have pioneered the use of quality tools and principles in a wide variety of fields. There are, however, indicators that

NOTE: There IS a pre-meeting ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSION at Alioto's this month.

ASQ must adapt to changing times. This talk will describe some of the challenges we face, what both members and non-members are telling us in our research, how other similar societies have reacted to similar challenges, and how we will explore ways to position ASQ to overcome those challenges and better serve our members.

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHY

William J. Troy joined ASQ in 2014 following a 38-year U.S. Army career, from which he retired as Lieutenant General (three stars). His most recent position was director of U.S. Army Staff at the Pentagon. Troy served in Europe, the United States, Asia, and the Middle East.

At ASQ, Troy directs the organization's mission to advance quality and quality tools worldwide. His duties include ensuring the alignment of the strategies and goals established by ASQ's board of directors. He also works with ASQ's volunteer member leaders and represents ASQ as a board member of the ANSI-ASQ National Accreditation Board, Exemplar Global, and the Baldrige Foundation.

- Troy was director of the U.S. Army Staff from August 2010 until July 2013. He led 20,000 military staff and civilians, assisted in the oversight of a $5 billion budget, and ensured the integration and coordination of policies, plans, and decisions affecting the entire U.S. Army.
- Prior to his tour as director, he served as the Commanding General, U.S. Army Alaska, where he was responsible for the combat readiness of 12,000 soldiers, and the welfare of 20,000 family members.
- He has held a number of significant general officer positions on behalf of the U.S. military, including Chief of Staff for III Corps in Iraq during Operation Iraqi Freedom.
- Troy was commissioned in the infantry from the United States Military Academy, where he received a Bachelor of Science degree. He received master's degrees from the Naval Postgraduate School, and the Naval War College, and was a Senior Fellow at Harvard University's Weatherhead Center for International Affairs.

ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSION TOPIC & FACILITATOR BIO

“8D Eight Disciplines Corrective Action”

We are fortunate to have Chris Dudzik, Continuous Improvement (CI) Manager from Strattec Security Corporation, to define the 8D process of corrective action. Chris comes to us with a background in continuous improvement and holds a Black Belt certification. Chris has the responsibility for facilitating CI activities at Strattec.

Chris will cover the steps of the 8D process. He will walk through the advantages of using this tool over other PDCA processes.

We will also seek examples from our participants on how the corrective action process has helped them close issues in their operations.

The presentation will begin at 5:30; we will distribute RU slips at the tables at 5:45. If you arrive after 5:45 please participate but understand that you will not receive RUs for the event.

We will finish at 6:15 leaving ample time to register for the meeting.

Roland Chaloupka

Roundtable/Pre-Meeting Chairperson

Quality Education Seminar 2017

Saturday Mar 4
Saturday Mar 11

8:30 am to 4:30 pm each day

ASQ Milwaukee has provided high value education and training to the community for over 30 years. With returning favorites and new additions, the Spring Education Seminar is sure to have something for you.

Our goal is to provide this annual seminar to ASQ members and non-members alike to continue and maintain their education in quality systems and process improvement. We focus locally on Milwaukee and the surrounding area, and do everything at a price that is less than half of comparable opportunities!

CALL for NEWSLETTER and WEBSITE ADVERTISERS!

We are looking for additional newsletter and website advertisers! Advertising with the Milwaukee section promotes your products and services to its members and anyone who visits its website. In addition to having extremely competitive advertising rates, each company who advertises with ASQ Milwaukee may send one employee, free of charge, to one day of training at its annual spring training event!

As an additional incentive, we are offering a free dinner to anyone who connects us with a company that becomes a paid advertiser!
